"Epistles"

October 2020

Volume 36 No. 11

When brought before Emperor Charles V in 1521, Martin Luther was under extreme pressure to retract what he had been writing concerning Christ and His Church. He was called on to stop publishing and teaching at the threat of being deemed an outlaw within the empire. As he stood before the Emperor, he spoke these famous words:

Unless I am convinced by the testimony of the Scriptures and or by clear reason... I am bound by the Scriptures I have quoted and my conscience is captive to the Word of God. I cannot and I will not retract anything, since it is neither safe nor right to go against conscience.

I cannot do otherwise, here I stand, may God help me. Amen.

(Luther at the Diet of Worms, April 1521)

Here I stand. Luther's remarks flow from the fountainhead of Scripture. What had been clouded over for years once again was being proclaimed boldly - the crucifixion and blood of Christ is the complete and total hope of salvation for sinners who look upon that holy death to justify them before God. This is the truth of Scripture and the comfort of the cross of Christ. Luther would not back down or buckle because the truth was at stake. Here I stand.

It is because of God's work through Luther and his colleagues that we celebrate Reformation Day in the church. The truth of Christ continues to go out. We are inheritors of this great heritage built on the truth that sinners are justified before God by grace alone through faith alone for the sake of Christ alone, a truth revealed to us in Scripture alone. These are the things that saturate the landscape of the Lutheran Church. From our great and strong Reformation era hymns to our highest regard of God's Word and reverence before the altar of Christ, we are bathed from the great fountainhead from which Luther and the Reformers also drank.

We too should say Here I Stand. We should stand firm on all of what has been handed down to us in a world that seeks to confound us. Because what has been handed down to us is the clear and beautiful announcement of Jesus alone as our Redeemer and our hope in the midst of fear. "In [Christ] we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace" (Ephesians 1:7). We are under pressure to deny not only this truth but other truths which flow from Holy Scripture, such as: God creates life at conception; marriage is one man and one woman. If we begin to deny parts of the truth of the Word of the Lord, we are in grave danger of denying the Lord Himself. Luther understood this well and staked everything he had on God's clear Word and the mercy of Jesus' shed blood - Here I Stand.

Have you been away from church for a while, the place where the life giving Word of the Lord goes out and Jesus hands over His blood to you? Come and rediscover anew this most wonderful gift which caused Luther to confess Here I Stand. Let's bask and be strengthened together once again in what the Reformers were so thrilled to defend - the very truth of God's Word and the mercy for sinners found in the crucified and risen Christ. He places himself in our midst each Lord's Day by His Word and Supper to give life and salvation to us who are surrounded by chaos and pressure so that on the last day we will stand bathed in His mercy.

The Lord of hosts is with us; the God Jacob is our fortress.

Happy Reformation Day,

- Pastor Suggitt

EXPLANATION OF LUTHER'S SEAL

The black cross in the center reminds us that Jesus died to take the punishment for our sins. The red heart reminds us of the love God has for us in sending Jesus to be our Savior. The red of the heart is the color of the blood of Christ, shed for us and for our salvation. The white rose helps us remember the work of the Holy Spirit, who makes us pure and holy in God's sight by bringing us to faith in Jesus and by helping us to live our lives for him. The sky blue background pictures the joy of the new life God gives to all who believe and trust in him. Finally, the golden ring outlining the seal reminds us of our eternal inheritance—a home in heaven where we will enjoy complete joy and happiness in our Savior's presence.

The regular meeting of St. Paul Ladies Aid was called to order by President Ruth Fluegge on Sunday, September 8, 2020 following our worship service. The meeting opened with a devotion based on I Corinthians 12:4 – 7, 'every person in the faith has simple gifts to be used for the kingdom.'

Horseradish Update

We will be selling horseradish as part of the pre-order canned goods sale on October 17th. Please fill out a pre-order form to purchase yours. Cost is $4/half pint or $8/pint.

On Sunday, September 27th we had about 20 volunteers (adults, youth, and Sunday school) help peel, grind, and package. Thanks to all the wonderful help, we successfully filled 216 half pint and 27 pint jars in under 3 hours! If we sell all of the jars, our profit will be $1080 – just from horseradish!

The group worked like a fine-oiled machine. The weather was perfect for peeling outside, which really helped with ventilation.

Thank you to everyone who helped – from the Thrivent grant, to digging, to cleaning, to peeling, to grinding, to packaging, to hauling, to clean-up. We are truly blessed with fine Christian men, women, and children at St. Paul.

The deadline for the November issue of St. Paul's "Epistle" will be Sunday, October 25, 2020. You can email them to Sandy at salcido.sandy8@gmail.com or place them in the newsletter mailbox at the top of the stairs

In case you missed the last note:

We would like to get the families involved in Sunday School this year. We will start with a big group class spread out at tables in the fellowship hall. The offering can will be on the table. Kids can place their offering in the can and then take a seat. Parents are asked to stay with their kids to help with social distancing and keeping the kids focused on the lesson. We will provide snacks at the tables.

When Pastor leaves to go to Caseville, we will have music, or puppet skit, or craft/activity. Class will be done at 10:15 a.m. Each week Pastor will also give the kids a memory verse. Please practice it with them during the week, so they know it the following week! There might even be some little prizes to encourage participation.

Another change to start the school year – we are planning some family field trips. Families are invited to meet in the fellowship hall immediately after church service. We will have a quick message from Pastor Suggitt as a group, and then we will leave for the field trips. Our first trip was to Kohl Farms Corn Maze. We had a great turnout – 25 kids at Sunday School and 40 kids and parents attended the maze!

The next family event will be Sunday, October 11th. Again, Pastor Suggitt will have a short message in the fellowship hall and we will have a snack. Then everyone is encouraged to come with the kids to tour Smith's Alpaca Farm near Gagetown. Then on Sunday, November 1st we will have a hayride and bonfire.

Get the Scoop on Youth Group!

Pumpkin Sales: We picked pumpkins on Sunday, September 20th. Amy Haag made sloppy joes and Grace Suggitt donated frozen yogurt for the kids lunch.

We had 10 families help pick pumpkins and put them on trailers at 4 area homes.

One week after we put the pumpkins out, the kids have already made about $500 in donations and we have less than 50 pumpkins left! The monies raised will go to Youth Group and Sunday School to provide Christmas Gifts for our Adopt-A-Family event.

Thank you to everyone who helped make this a very successful fundraiser – tilling, planting, weeding, picking, hauling, selling, and buying!

Next youth group work day is Saturday, November 7th 6-8pm. We will be packaging soups and turnovers for the pre-order sale.

St. Paul Adopts New Seminary Student

As we seek to support the proclamation of the Gospel, St. Paul has received a new seminary student to support as he receives theological training in order to be placed into the Office of the Holy Ministry. Seminarian Christian Mundorf is in his second year of study at Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne, Indiana. He hails from Saline, Michigan and is a graduate of Valparaiso University.

Please remember seminarian Mundorf as we pray for him and also support him with financial assistance as he seeks to serve in our Lord's church.

Christian Mundorf
6600 North Clinton Street Box 358
Fort Wayne, IN 46825

Keep them in your prayers and maybe give them a call and let them know they're not forgotten as visitors are not allowed.

FORGIVEN

IF YOU FORGIVE
ANYONE HIS SINS,
THEY ARE FORGIVEN
(JOHN 20:23)

This Higher Things Conference is coming to Michigan again this summer! Our plans for last year came to an end with the cancellation due to Covid. But take heart, we can plan for summer 2021. The conference will take place July 20-23 at Calvin University, Grand Rapids and geared is toward students in 6th - 12th grade. Early Bird registration begins Nov. 1. For more information see Pastor Suggitt or go to higherthings.org.

If you desire to submit your offering to the church on your phone or computer, you can! Visit our website stpaulinkville.org and navigate to the online giving link, follow the prompts, and your offering will go to the church. It's an easy way for you to continue to support the work of the Gospel here at St. Paul.

NOTE TO PARENTS WITH CHILDREN:

Using this option will no longer let your children see you place your offering in the plate and ask questions about how and why we regularly give. Thus, you will need to initiate this important conversation with them and show them that you are using this new way to give to the church.

We hope this electronic giving is simple and effective for you to use if you choose to do so.

Dear saints, opportunities for you to grow in God's Word are available and encouraged. We have small booklets covering different topics located in the rack in the narthex. Take them home with you - they are yours to keep. You will also find in the rack some guidance on how to conduct daily devotions in your home.

Bible Study is offered every Monday night at 6:30 p.m. We are currently working through the Gospel of Matthew.

Sunday School after church is meant for the entire family. Hear the Word of God with your children and discuss these great truths as you raise your children in the faith.

Your word is lamp to my feet and light to my path.

Psalm 119:105
