Volume 38 No. 2

Hallmark Christmas movies are nice but predictable. A girl goes back to her hometown after being away for years and meets the man who seems to be the local handyman but in reality is the town's wealthiest resident. They have witty banter until she is finally swept away by his charm, rugged good looks, and never ending wardrobe of Land's End or Eddie Bauer apparel. It snows peacefully and lightly as the new couple engages in a kiss while the camera gently pans out from the town square giving sight to a few people milling around not dressed properly for the end of December in the mountains.

That's nice. And mostly wholesome.

Yet it is a Christmas without Christ. And no Mass. No Jesus and no church. Sure, there might be a passing glimpse of a nativity scene or some hubbub about happenings at a Christmas pageant of sorts, but these things are peripheral if not all together absent. The point here is not to deter you from Hallmark movies (obviously I've seen them), but is to bring our attention to the unpredictability of how God has chosen to come to us and how that should be paramount and drive our lives as ones rescued by Him.

Advent teaches us that we have not been ruggedly handsome nor have we been dressed in the best attire. We haven't been charming or wholesome or secretly the best person in town. The twist in the plot – that which is so startling – is that which we hear on Christmas. That Jesus comes for us anyway. Unto you is born this day a Savior, Christ the Lord. This is Christmas. God among men, as a man. To save sinful men. By dying.

This fact makes Jesus the center of any true Christmas. For what joy can compare to Christ who puts on our likeness to redeem us? What town square festivities can hold a candle to gathering around the flesh and blood that once lay in a manger but now comes in His church for you? God be praised when you see a nativity set up and remember "That's for me! And I have a Savior who still comes to bless me with His benefits." Jesus born is true beauty revealed. It is the unexpected gift for poor sinners. It is hope and the love of God mingled together with the camera not panning out but zooming in on where you should be focused. Let everything else be peripheral to that. Put up scenes of our Lord's birth and Him on a cross in your house. Hear the angels say "For you" as they rejoice with good tidings of great joy.

Unpredictable mercy and grace through the God-Man born to die. For you. Keeping Christ in Christmas brings you that. And keeping Mass in Christmas delivers to you the gathering in His church where all His benefits are poured out.

*Savior of the nations, come,
Virgin's Son, make here Your home!
Marvel now, O heaven and earth,
That the Lord chose such a birth.
(LSB 332)*

Merry Christmas,
Pastor Suggitt

The regular meeting of St. Paul Ladies Aid was called to order by Vice-President Janet Truemner immediately following our worship service on Sunday, November 7, 2021.

Pastor Suggitt opened the meeting with a devotion based on a reading from Philippians – we need be generous and re-find the joy in helping others

Eight members answered roll call. The secretary's report from the special meeting held on September 19, 2020 was read. Ruth Kumaus gave the treasurer's report. Her statement at the end of October showed a balance of $29,600. in the checking account; savings account – $11,685; petty cash – $117.41.

Old Business:

1. Ruth K. presented a breakdown of totals by department for the bazaar. Profits from our bazaar totaled $16,455.
2. Discussion was held on how we should use the remaining canned goods – possibly gift baskets for sale or shut-ins during the Christmas season.

New Business:

1. Ruth Kumaus made four proposals concerning our finances. Each proposal was discussed, motions made and supported on each, and carried. They are as follows:
  - A. The Ladies Aid is to issue a check to Sunday School in the amount of $1,000 ($700 for the Sunday School Cookie Walk estimated earnings and $300 as a donation).

- B. Transfer $2,000 from the Ladies Aid Checking Account into the Ladies Aid Savings Account.
- C. Change the frequency of the Seminary Student's support from quarterly to semi-annually (two payments issued – one in January and one in August). The student will be informed of this change.
- D. Increase the Seminary Student's support from $800 to $1000.

2. Our treasurer gave us a breakdown on our finances for the coming year. Discussion was held on what our charitable donations would be for 2021. Several suggestions were made. In the end we agreed that we should make the following charitable donations:

- Blessing Boxes - $500
  - Safe Place - $500
  - Orphan Grain Train - $500
  - Good Samaritan, Bay City - $500
  - Seminarian - $500
  - Alaska Ministry - $500
  - Clothe-A-Child - $250
  - Family Christmas/Bad Axe - $500
  - Family Christmas/Cass City - $500
  - Family Christmas/Laker Schools - $500
  - Family Christmas/Owen-Gage Schools - $500
  - Family Christmas/USA Schools - $500
3. St. Paul has secured a grant that is intended to use to purchase 2 new computers – one for the church office and one for the Financial Secretary to record tithes. An updated version of the Shepherd's Staff will also be purchased. The Ladies Aid agreed to help financially if needed to make these purchases.

The meeting closed with singing the doxology as saying the Lord's Prayer.

Respectively submitted,

Sandy Salcido, Secretary

The kids and parents had a great time for a scavenger hunt and bonfire on November 21st. The weather cooperated and everyone enjoyed s'mores and hotdogs cooked on the fire! Thanks to Anyssa Mandich for putting together the fun-filled scavenger hunt.

Classes will be shorter for the month of December, but we will still continue to tell the Good News of Jesus Christ. We are busy practicing for our Christmas program. The

We are also singing two songs with the adult choir on Sunday, December 19th during the 8:30 a.m. service. And, we are playing bells during church on Sunday, December 5th. Please have your kids in church and Sunday school every week.

at 6:00 p.m. Please join us for dinner before service. Dinner will be: homemade soups, fresh baked bread, veggies and dip, and lots of great desserts. ### THE SCOOP ON YOUTH GROUP

Thanks to all the Youth Group families who helped make Thanksgiving a bountiful feast for two area families. We delivered turkeys and all the groceries for a family feast to families from USA and Lakers schools. Your generosity is a blessing.

I'd like to have a wrapping day with Youth Group kids on December 5th at 11:00 a.m. We will wrap gifts and then have lunch.

Then in January, we will be having a pre-order soup and braided coffee cake sale. Youth group will take orders until January 16th. Orders will be available for pickup on Saturday, January 22nd at 5:00 – 6:00 p.m. and after church on Sunday, January 23rd.
