Guard The Deposit Entrusted To You

The Fourth of July comes and you celebrate freedoms and rights God has established for you in our country which are exercised because of the work of others who came before you. You dress up in red, white, and blue, fly a flag of the same colors on the front of your house and tell your children and grandchildren about those who have died and make those colors mean something. There's rightfully talk of liberty, justice, and the instilling of the sense of awe of what has been handed down to you.

Parades happen and everyone stands up and claps when the veterans roll by. Honor is given and the young are encouraged that to serve as those others did is a virtuous thing - to guard what is good. We recognize that the stakes are high to keep what we have in our country and to let things decay because of laziness or apathy is to let the proverb come to pass upon ourselves, "The sluggard does not plow in the autumn; he will seek at harvest and have nothing" (Proverbs 20:4).

The Fourth of July comes and you want to protect the good things passed down and you want the next generation to take up the mantle to steer our country, which was brought about by the providence of God, in a way that is pleasing and honors the heritage you have inherited, which is more than colorful bunting on the front porch or a bumper sticker on your pick-up, but a duty you see to be handed over to the next generation. This is good.

If we think this way and act this way on the Fourth of July (again, a great thing that we need to keep doing), we should even more so, concerning the Christian faith, heed the words of the apostle Paul to Timothy, "Guard the deposit entrusted to you" (1 Timothy 6:20). The deposit entrusted to Timothy was not the sacrifice of many, but of one Man, our Lord Jesus and the blessings He seeks to give to His Christians. This also has to be guarded, spoken of, taught, relished in, encouraged among ourselves and the younger generation. The zeal for the heritage of our Lord should outweigh any other heritage we have received. If we think our country is being eroded to stray from the foundation and principles upon which it was built and are compelled to rehearse its underpinnings at our celebrations, know that St. Paul understood that erosion can happen to the Christian faith and therefore exhorts Timothy to guard the deposit. This isn't presented to Timothy as just an option because St. Paul knows what's at stake. It's also not an option for us; it our duty. As much as it is our duty to stand up for what's right according to God in our country, it is our duty to guard the deposit of faith found in Christ and His Word - through prayer, reading the Bible, examining ourselves, discipline, and leading the younger or those who haven't heard of Jesus.

So we adorn ourselves with His true Word. We parade into the Church to honor the One who gave fully of Himself and receive His gifts. We stand at the proclamation of His Gospel. We encourage the young to take notice of what our Lord Jesus has handed over to us by faith that it would become a part of who they are. We dress up and fly the flag of courage and humility to be counted as one of Jesus' blood-bought citizens of heaven.

Honor that which is good, right, and true, and most of all guard the deposit and give thanks to God "who richly provides us with everything to enjoy" (1 Timothy 6:17).

In Christ,
Pastor Suggitt

Vacation Bible School @ St. Paul

This year we had a wonderful group of kids and adults for VBS. We had a total of 39 kids registered and an additional 20+ volunteers. The children learned about our Savior Jesus Christ from his humble birth in a manger to His blessed death and resurrection. We learned about some of the miracles he performed, and about his unending love, the forgiveness of sins and our eternal salvation. All of these wonderful gifts belong to all Christians, because God so loved the world and sent His son to be our Savior! Now that is something to celebrate!

We collected an offering daily to support “Sharing the Savior”. This mission project provides books about Jesus to children all over the world. The kids really enjoyed the friendly competition each day—boys vs girls for the heaviest offering AND the most $ offering. In just four days, our VBS raised $783 toward this wonderful outreach. That is amazing!

A special thanks goes out to all the wonderful volunteers! I truly could not do any of it without all the moms, dads, grandparents, and youth who came out to help. Our church is truly blessed with wonderfully gracious people. Thanks also to the Sunday School, Church Council, Ladies Aid, and Youth Group for providing meals each night. And thanks to Coca Cola Company for providing milk, sport drinks, waters, and lemonades for the week. Money from Thrivent and Easter Breakfast donations also helped offset our costs. Lastly, thank you to everyone who made God a priority and brought the children to hear His word at VBS!

Wilma Kovach Celebrates 100 Years

Wilma Voss Kovach was born on June 6, 1924. She was baptized at St. Paul Lutheran Church in Linkville, and was the first baby baptized at the current church location. Her faith and church family have always been important to her and remain a source of strength and comfort to this day.

A celebration of Wilma's life and 100th birthday was held at Sherwood on the Hill on June 8th. The Open House was also a celebration of neighborhood and community, with gratitude for the people in her life from Linkville and Owendale as well as St. Paul Lutheran Church fellowship. Over 200 family and friends joined Wilma in a joyous gathering filled with delicious food, refreshing drinks and plenty of laughter.

Family members provided an overview of Wilma's life experiences and accomplishments. She followed with her recitation of a poem she wrote for the 1963 Mother and Daughter Banquet. It was quite a hit . . . she was quite a hit! Wilma expressed her thanks to all who attended as well as the many people who sent birthday card well wishes.

Wilma spreads goodwill with her smile and generous spirit. She often says that a smile is free. It costs nothing, but it makes everyone feel good. She holds in her heart faith, family and friends. She is blessed.

October 12, 2024
10:00 a.m.

The church bazaar is scheduled for Saturday, October 12th. What will you and your family do to help make it a success? We need lots of crafts, canned goods (jams, jellies, peaches, pears, beets, pickles, sauces, relishes, sauerkraut, applesauce, etc.), extra produce, lots of baked goods (pies, cookies, tarts, breads, specialty treats, etc.). Let's get everyone involved!

A group of volunteers have been busy working on baskets and grave blankets for the bazaar. If you'd like to help or want to make some baskets to sell, please talk to Ruth Kumaus or Joyce Metzger. We've begun collecting items for White Elephant Sale. Gardens are growing, so hopefully you've been planning what you will be canning for the bazaar. Canning isn't difficult, so let's get more people involved! We have lots of canning jars for your use. Pick them up from the church basement next time you're at church. If you are good at crafting, knitting, crocheting, quilting, refurbishing, we would love to sell those things too!

We will be peeling and processing horseradish on Sunday, October 6th right after church. If you are willing to help dig, we will likely do that on Wednesday, October 2nd. Contact Susan Schember or Brandy Gunsell if you can lend a hand digging! If you were able to freeze extra asparagus for the bazaar soup, please put it in the freezer next time you're at the church. We did get lots of rhubarb, so yay! If you have extra beef stew meat, hamburger, ham or chicken for the soups, please let Susan Schember know. We can save a lot of $$$ by getting those expensive things donated.

Donations needed:

The bazaar gift basket and grave blanket makers are in need to several items to complete their wares. They are as follows:

Baskets

(If you bought gift baskets in previous years, please feel free to return the baskets to be re-used)

Ribbon for the gift baskets

Silk flowers for the gift baskets

Wide ribbon

(preferably the kind with wire and weather-proof)

NEWSLETTER DEADLINE

The deadline for articles for the September issue of St. Paul's "Epistle" is Sunday, August 18, 2024. You can email them to Sandy at salcido.sandy8@gmail.com.

Thanks for keeping the congregation informed about what's going at St. Paul.

Come and Hear the Teacher and He will tell you the Truth

‘She who must be obeyed’ sent out the reminder text saying, “newsletter articles are due by”. As I scratched my head for ideas or a theme, I came up either lame or too preachy. Later on, the frustration of finding something catchy or cute to say continued to linger.

The next morning, I went out for my morning coffee in the tranquility room (front porch) and picked up my Bible (which I had forgotten to read for several days). I forgot what passages I had read but it struck me that there were some words that kept coming up in their texts. I had been reading mostly Matthew, Mark, Luke & John. All of them used the word ‘teacher’ when writing their accounts of Jesus. And all of them quoted the ‘Teacher’ Jesus saying, “I tell you the truth.”

As an elder we are encouraged to read the Book of Concord, the Augsburg Confession and Apologies, and Luther’s Small Catechism. During our elder’s meetings we will read sections of these books as a reminder of our Lutheran heritage. Sometimes during our discussions, we ask questions of our Pastor and he will answer them; and then use a quote from scripture that pertains to his answer. In the Bible verses the apostles also would ask the teacher what he meant and the teacher would clarify His words by quoting the law.

It all makes sense – God sends His ‘teacher’ for us to hear; He sends the Holy Spirit to make sure there’s an accurate account of what the teacher said and did for us; He sent out those who were taught to build a church for us to be taught by the teacher’s words and deeds; and, that church gives us faithful pastors to deliver the teacher’s words. So when we attend services to hear God’s Word we get to hear what the ‘Teacher’ has said in His own words. We get to hear when He says, “I tell you the truth”.

See you Sunday! Joe Salcido, the elder elder

HOW DO YOU RECEIVE YOUR NEWSLETTER?

Church mailbox?

Snail mail?

Email?

I was recently reading some articles on the Google feed on my phone when I came upon a blurb from the United States Postal Service. Well, guess what? They are going to raise the cost of a first-class postage stamp AGAIN!

I recently ordered copy paper from our supplier, and, guess what? The cost of it has skyrocketed.

- Are you willing to fetch your newsletter from your church mailbox?
- Would you be interested in having it delivered via email?

If you’re interested in receiving your newsletter via email or in your church mailbox, drop me a note on the desk in the church office and I’ll get ‘er done.

There is a large box of trophies in the church office from Dart ball and softball; some from many years ago. They were taken out of the cabinet in the narthex. If anyone is interested in taking some of them OR all of them home please feel free to do so ASAP.

LIFE QUOTE

We live in the presence of evil. Some of it is twisted to sound good. We hear of 'the compassionate relief of suffering 'or 'death with dignity 'or 'right to health care ' or 'simple medical procedure. 'You know many more. God calls us to confront these with His truth, to reveal the evil behind them. God calls us to educate fellow Christians in His truth so they do not end up 'possessed ' by this way of thinking. God calls us to call evil what it is, but also to share the truth of what God has done about evil. For that we fix our gaze upon Jesus (Hebrews 12:2). He speaks to us through His Word of truth and grace.
